Harnessing digital data to study 21st-century adolescence

This study is conducted by Dr Amy Orben (amy.orben@mrc-cbu.cam.ac.uk) at the MRC Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit of the University of Cambridge. This study has been reviewed by the University of Cambridge Ethics Committee [Project ID Number]: XXX/XX.

The University of Cambridge data protection officer can be contacted at dpo@admin.cam.ac.uk. In this form, we refer to the previous information letter. If you do not consent to the conditions outlined below, you may not participate in this research.

By pressing the 'Confirm' button, I confirm that:

1. I have read and understood the Information Sheet and have had the opportunity to consider the information and what will be expected of my child
2. I consent to the processing of my child's personal information (e.g., gender and age) for the purposes explained to me.
3. I understand that according to data protection legislation, 'public task' will be the lawful basis for processing, and 'research purposes' will be the lawful basis for processing special category data.
4. I understand that all personal information will remain confidential and that all efforts will be made to ensure my child cannot be identified (except as might be required by law).
5. I understand that my child's participation is voluntary and that I am free to withdraw on their behalf at any time without giving a reason. Moreover, I understand that if I withdraw, any personal data provided up to that point will not be deleted unless I indicate otherwise.
6. I may request my child's data to be deleted, however, it may be impossible to delete the anonymized record of the data.
7. I understand that anonymized and aggregated data from this study may be published in a scientific research journal or a data repository.
8. I agree that my child's fully anonymized research data may be used by others for future research.
9. I consent to the research team safeguarding policy, and that if the research team have any concerns about my child's safety or wellbeing, they are obligated to inform the safeguarding lead at my child's school.
10. The data provided in this study will be archived in accordance with General Data Protection Regulation.
11. I voluntarily agree for my child to take part in this study
